COLE TATE

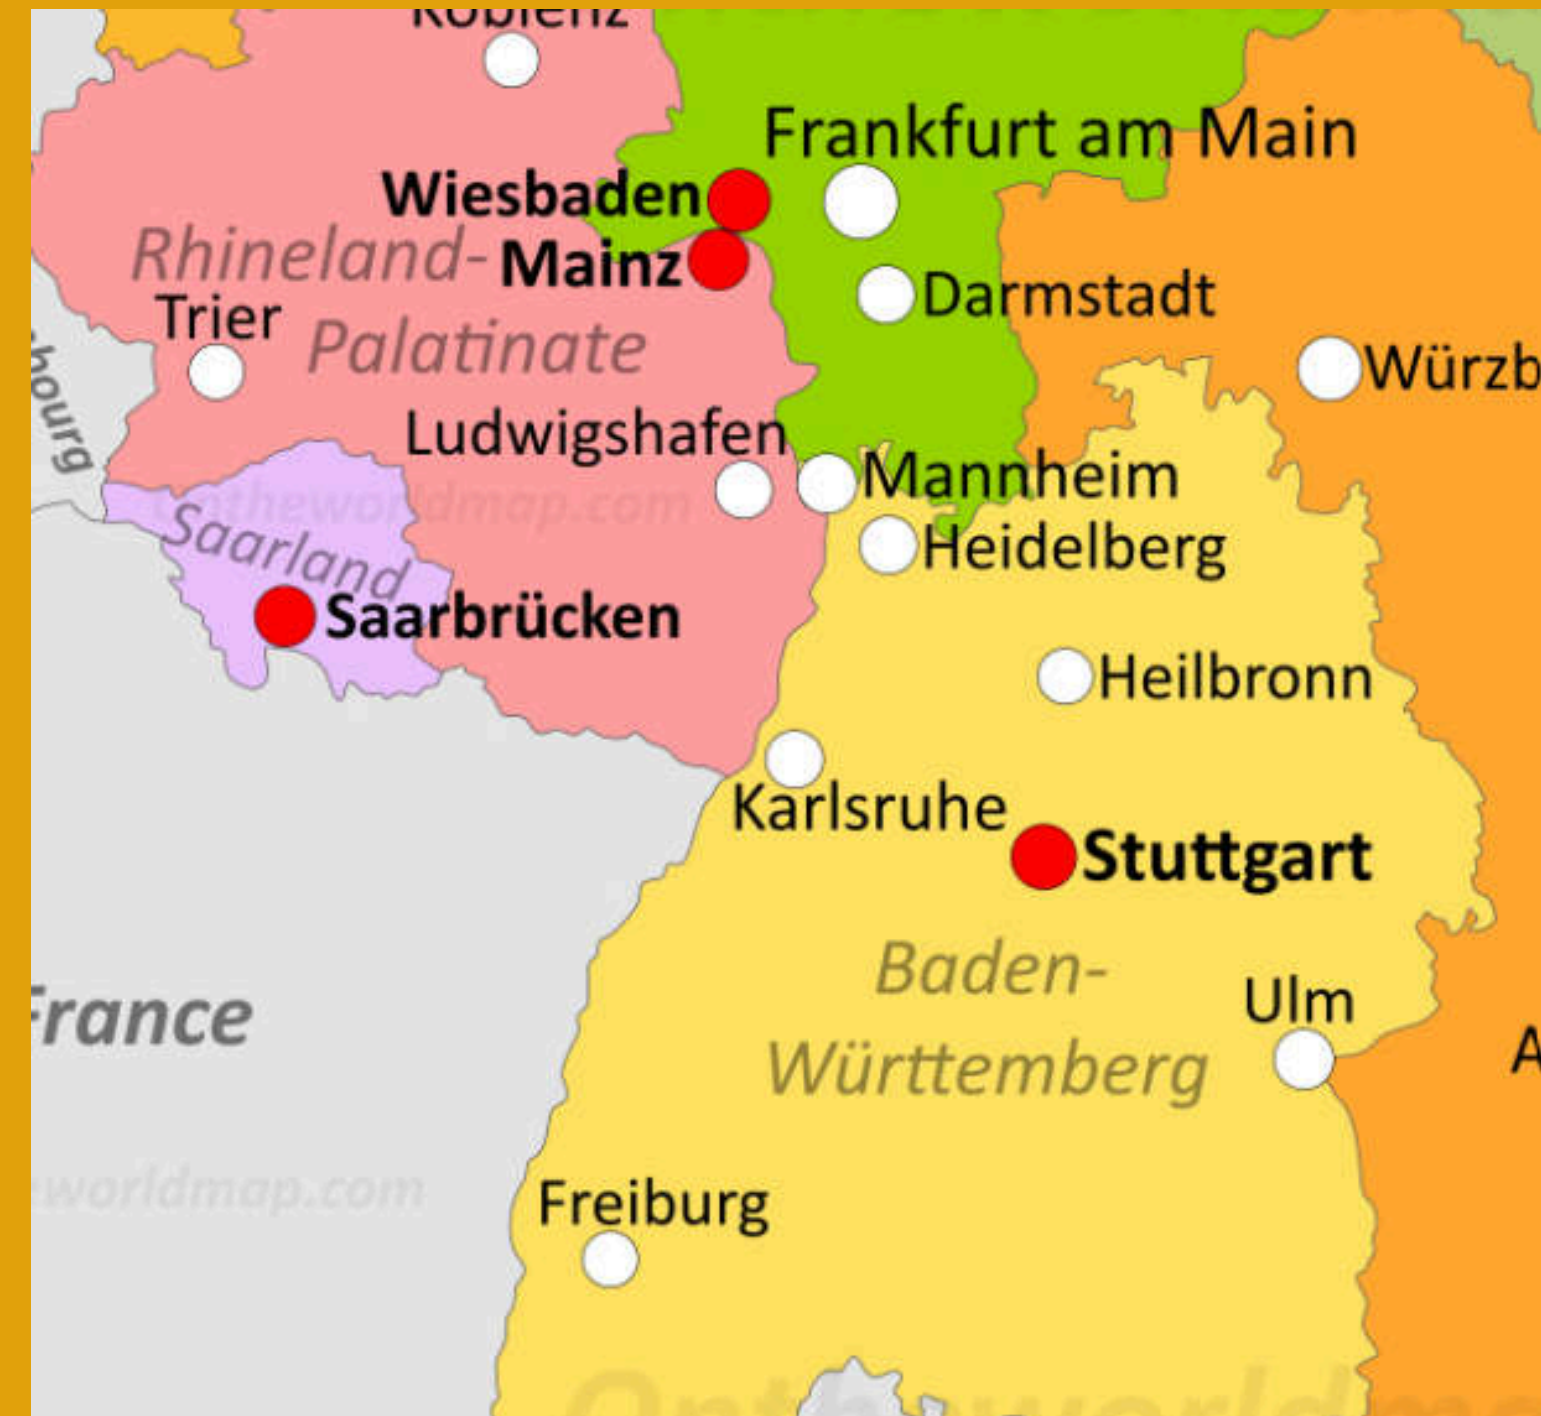

SCHIFFERSTADT UND MÖRZHEIM

- Who I am — Cole Tate, Hood College graduating senior (BA Spanish; German & Arabic minors)
- Purpose of the exchange — Strengthen Frederick's Sister City relationships through cultural immersion and firsthand experience
- Cities visited — Schifferstadt & Moerzheim, Germany
- Goals of the trip — Cultural learning, language practice, relationship-building, and representing Frederick abroad
- Overview of the presentation — What I learned, who I met, cultural insights, impactful moments, and contributions to Sister Cityhood

PURPOSE OF TRIP

- Personal growth — strengthen my language skills and cultural competency
- Professional development — gain real-world intercultural experience as an interpreter
- Relationship-building — support Frederick's long-standing Sister City partnerships
- Cultural immersion — learn directly from residents, leaders, and host families
- Representation — serve as a positive ambassador for Frederick abroad

ABOUT SCHIFFERSTADT & MOERZHEIM

- Schifferstadt: a vibrant town with deep agricultural roots and strong community identity
- Moerzheim: a close-knit wine village with rich traditions and local pride
- Both cities showed me how history, culture, and community values shape daily life

MOST IMPACTFUL MOMENT

DIE GESCHICHTE DER PARTNERSTÄDTE

- Partnership rooted in shared German heritage
- Began after Schifferstadt visitors discovered Frederick's historic Schifferstadt House (built by a Schifferstadt emigrant)
- Frederick's founder came from Moerzheim, strengthening the connection
- Formal Sister City Association created in 1990
- Relationship maintained through exchanges, visits, and cultural programs

CULTURAL TAKEAWAYS

- Schifferstadt: rooted in agriculture, community pride, and long-standing local traditions
- Moerzheim: shaped by wine culture, village life, and close community connections

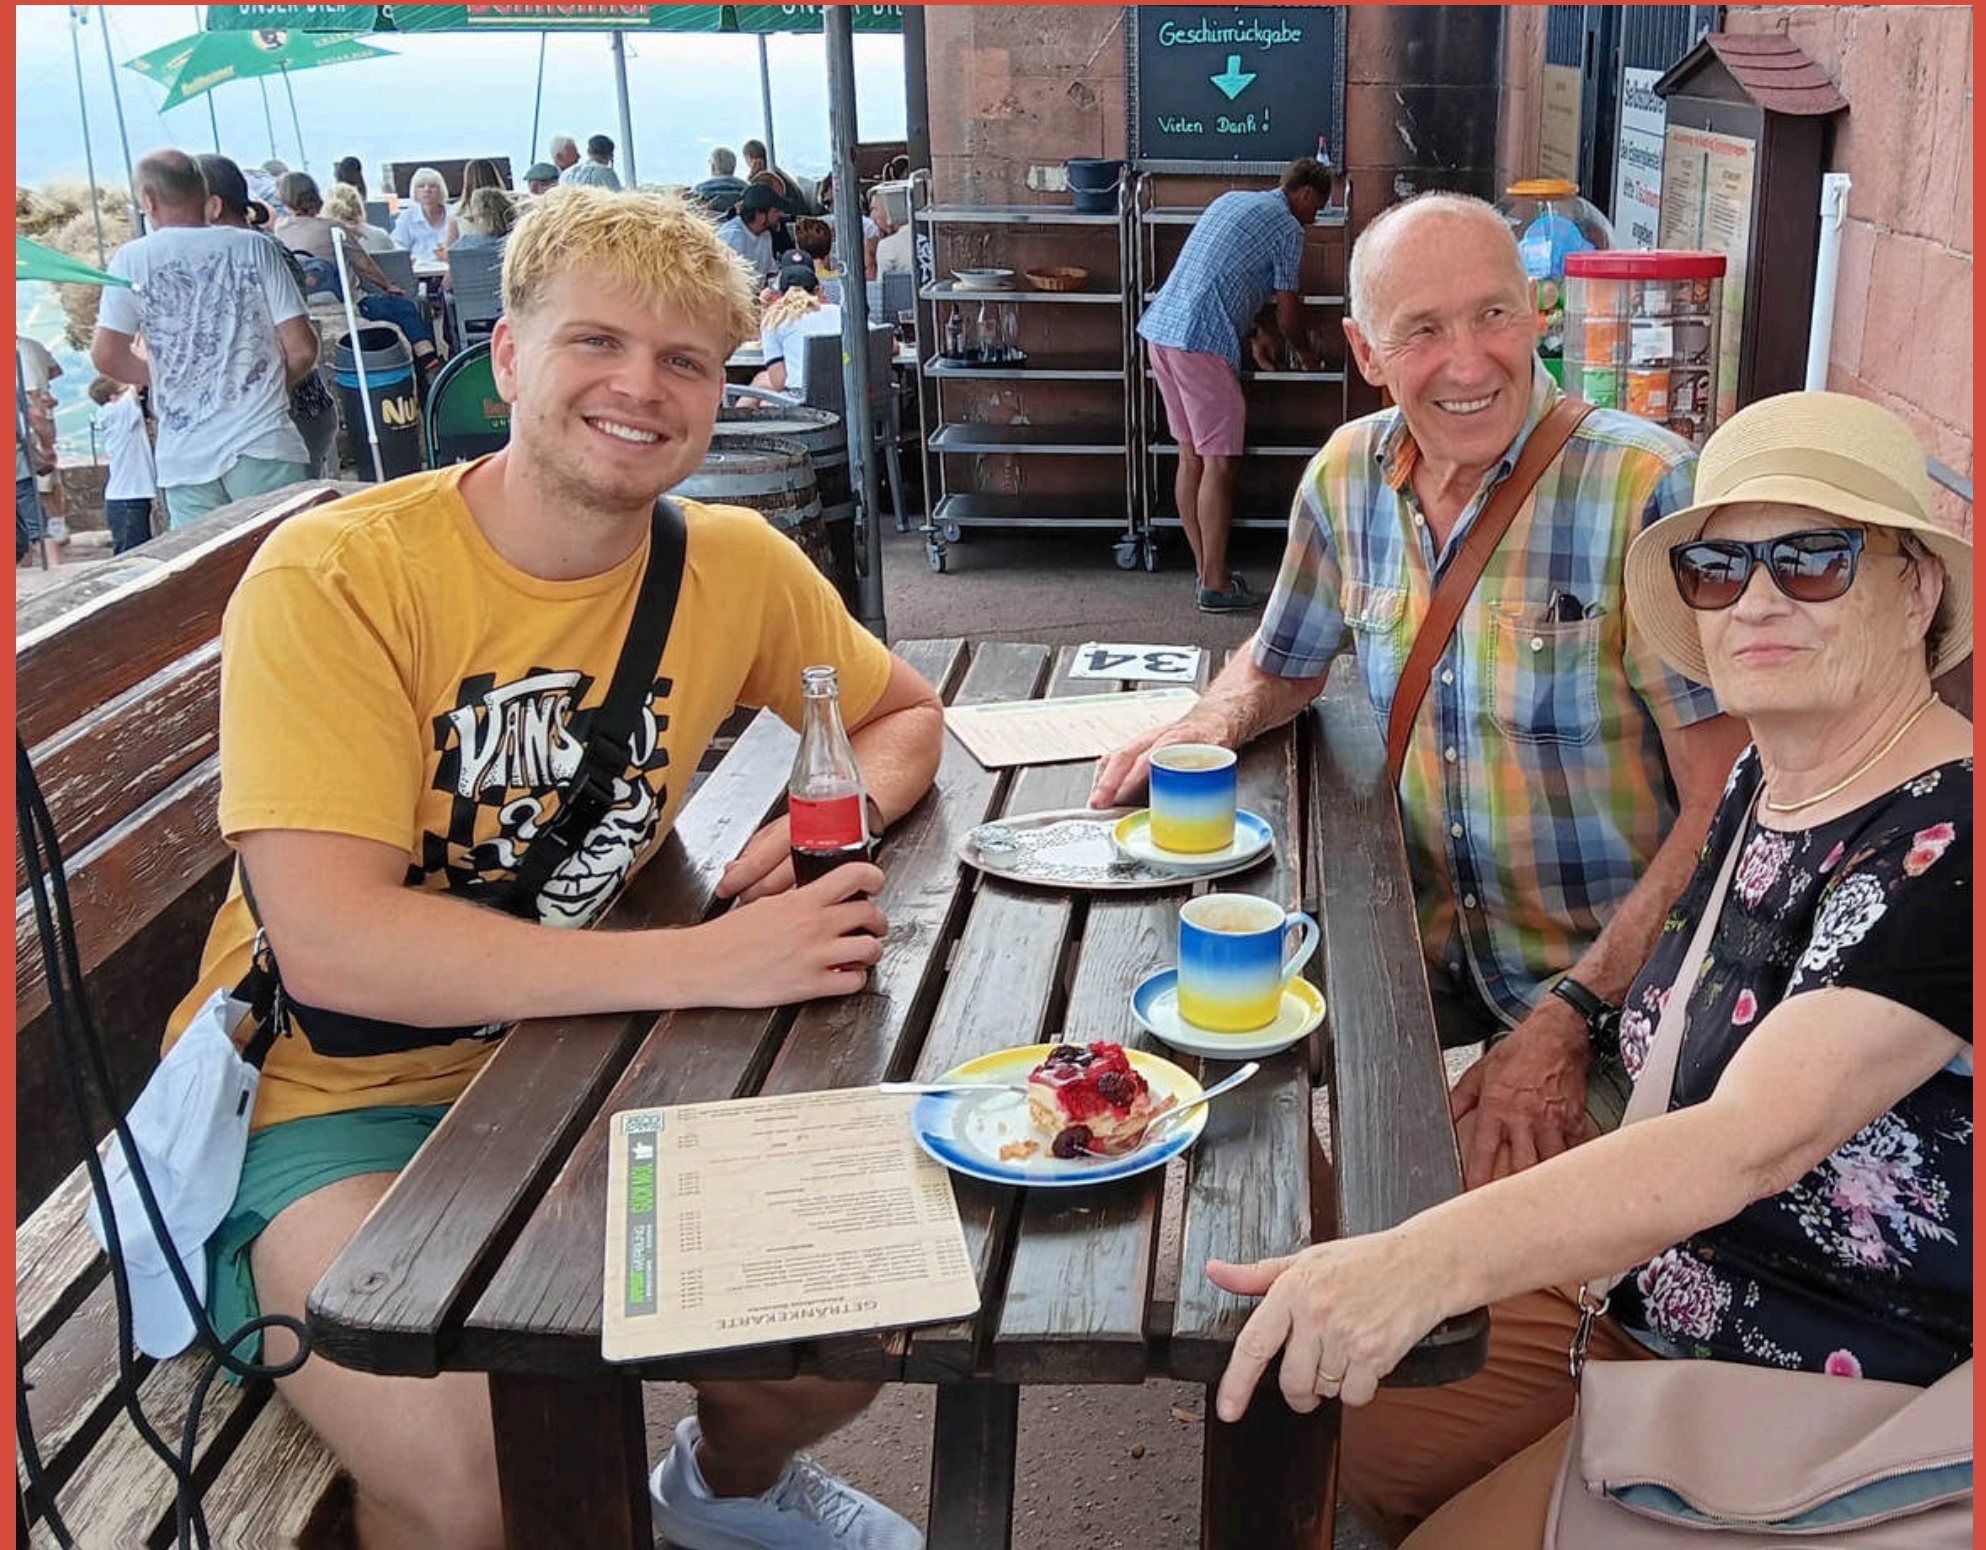

CULTURAL TAKEAWAYS

- Personal connection — built genuine relationships with residents, hosts, and local leaders
- Cultural exchange — shared Frederick's identity while learning Schifferstadt & Moerzheim traditions
- Representation — served as a positive ambassador for Frederick Sister Cities
